- 25X1
1. On 3 July, the regional secretaries of the Albanian Women's anti-Fascist organization held a meeting in Berat. The meeting was presided over by Liri Gega, the secretary general of the organization. A resolution was passed "to support by all means possible the struggle for democratic Greece".
 2. Elena Vuionie, representative of the Yugoslav organization, USAOJ, was also present, as well as Nadeshda M. Zaitseva, a representative of the Soviet Legation in Tirana.
 3. Nexhmije Hoxha, a sister of General Hoxha and member of the secretariat of the organization, was elected chief of the section responsible for mobilization and organization. It was decided that this new section would immediately get in touch with the headquarters of the Greek "Democratic Army" to ascertain how Albanian women could assist the Greek partisans.
 4. It was also decided that this organization should be subordinate to the Central Military Committee for all general instructions, and that all details of the meetings concerned with mobilization of women should be kept secret.
